FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

As the Jews wandered through the desert after escaping from Egypt, they started grumbling because they didn't have enough food to eat. God heard their complaints and provided them with bread from heaven, which they called manna.

God save the people from starvation by feeding them much like a mother feeds her children with the food they need to grow strong and healthy. So the Jews considered manna to be a symbol of God saving power and a sign of God's great love for his people.

In today's Gospel reading from the 6th Chapter of John, Jesus compares his body and blood in the Eucharist to the manna God gave the Jews in the desert. Jesus' body and blood is special food from heaven which, like the manna, is evidence of God's saving power and his great love.

Although Jesus' body and blood and the manna are similar, they are not identical because those who ate the manna in the desert still died but those who eat Jesus' body and drink his blood in the Eucharist will have eternal life. So Jesus body and blood in the Eucharist is greater than the manna and is an even better expression of God saving power and God's love for his people.

Jesus promised those who eat his flesh and drink his blood will rise from their graves. This promise is the foundation for the Christian belief that at the end of the world we will rise from the dead just as Jesus rose from the tomb on Easter Sunday morning. Like Jesus' resurrection, our own resurrection will be bodily and not just spiritual.

If we do not eat, our physical body will weaken and we will eventually die. What will happen to our spiritual selves if we do not partake of spiritual food?

It's a rare occasion that many of us would actually know someone famous, and as a daily adherent to the New York Times, I consider anyone featured in "the Gray Lady" to be famous. For whatever reason, it is a rare occasion for me to miss glancing at the Times in the morning, and last Sunday was an example of my glaring oversight. However, I noticed that at last Sunday morning's 11:00 AM liturgy, the Watson family was present and particularly well-dressed. It wasn't until I settled down for lunch that discovered the wonderful article in The New York Times. This article, featuring our own Rosina and Leon, was written in commemoration of the 50th Anniversary of the landmark U.S. Supreme Court decision Loving vs. Virginia, in which the High Court ruled in favor of an interracial couple who were charged and jailed for having violated Virginia's anti-misogyny laws. Loving vs. Virginia struck down such laws, and eventually paved the way for marriage equality within our country. Leon and Rosina were trailblazers in allowing their love for each other and God's call for them to join, be fruitful and multiply as a response of the heart and soul! Please get a chance to read that wonderful New York Times article on our own Watson family! We are so proud of you!

We are also so very proud of our own Golden State Warriors - I share and bask in the joy and immense civic pride in our dear Oakland that this occasion brings. Thank God for this momentous and unforgettable time!

Happy Father's Day to all of you who are fathers or father-figures. We also call to mind and prayers those figures who are no longer with us but are also deserving of our thoughts and prayers on this Father's Day commemoration.

I have asked Dionne Cola to serve as St. Benedict parish's Pastoral Associate. This non-paid position fulfills a function she already serves, which is to act as an assistant for parish pastoral responsibilities for St. Benedict. Dionne is tireless in her work to support the ministry of the parish.

Fr. Paul Vassar will be rejoining us after his absence over the past few months. Fr. Paul has been the temporary parochial administrator of the Catholic Community of Pleasanton during the absence of their pastor for health reasons. It is good to have him back with us.

God bless,
Fr. Jayson
